

Walking a Sacred Path Labyrinth Pilgrimages in Chartres, France

Come. Join us in this ancient place of refuge and renewal

September, 11 - 15, 2017

Mary Magdalene: An Apostle for our times with Dr. Kayleen Asbo hosted by the Reverend Dr. Lauren Artress

Last summer, Pope Francis lauded Mary Magdalene as a model for humanity, reclaiming her ancient title of Apostle to the Apostles. In this five day pilgrimage, Magdalene scholar Kayleen Asbo, PhD will weave together history, art, music and spiritual practices that illuminate the central transformative role Mary Magdalene has held for such pivotal figures as St Francis, St Teresa of Avila and Catherine of Sienna. We'll explore how Mary Magdalene embodies the archetype of healing, wholeness and integration--and what she can mean for us in our 21st century lives today.

Facilitator Training with Lauren Artress

Learn to offer the labyrinth experience to others in this professional, in-depth, two-day training.

September 20 - 22, 2017

The Three Questions of Life: What ails me? How can I help? Whom do I serve? with Lauren Artress

We live during uncertain times. Those who know that life is a journey value knowing our inner depths. We can learn from our experiences and strengthen ourselves along the path. In this seminar, Parsifal in search of the Grail will be our guide to find clarity, strength and commitment. Originally written in Germany in 1208—around the same time the labyrinth was placed in Chartres cathedral—the story emphasizes the path, and the pure hearted fool who embraces an authentic life in response to the chaos of his times.

This three-day seminar is designed for those who want to enrich and deepen their spiritual lives and to those in service to others: clergy, counselors, spiritual directors, therapists; anyone interested in self-reflection and one's purpose during these "interesting" times.
